

find it so easy to eat regularly outside of the banquet season.

People's Gas has increased its capital stock from $35,000,000 to $50,000,000. Wonder how much of it is water.

There's only one sure way to keep from paying dividends on watered stock of public service corporations—municipal ownership.

Chicago's famous subway is still up in the air.

But then we're in luck because council hasn't given that 55 per cent back to the street railway companies. They'll get it yet.

The social season is opening with a bang, and the debutantes will be debutting fast from now on.

Now they're asking the immortals if there isn't too much sex in our modern novel.

And one of the authors answered that there was too much sex in life, but God put it there and the authors can't help it.

Why in thunder are people afraid of the sex fact? This would be one dickens of a world without it.

Gaby Deslys brought a chicken all the way over from Europe so that reporters might snap a picture of her with the hen under her arm as she came down the gang plank at New York.

A heavy fog butted in, however, and the reporters were not laying for her when she landed in N. Y.

Cheer up! Gaby, maybe the hen will lay for you.

AFTER "BREAD TRUST," QUACK DOCTORS AND OTHERS

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 15.—The introduction of motions took up almost the entire time of the American Federation of Labor convention yesterday.

Delegate Myrup asked the federation to endorse a fight against "the bread trust" in the East, charging that the biggest bakeries of New York, Pittsburgh, Boston, Cleveland, Philadelphia and Providence have organized a combination to keep up the price of bread.

Delegate Max Hayes of Cleveland asked the federation to start a campaign against quack doctors and vendors.

Delegate Morris Brown alleged the Mergenthaler Linotype Company is underpaying hundreds of men, women and boys and asked the federation to take immediate steps to unionize that company's employees.

TO TALK ON LAWRENCE STRIKE

W. E. Troutman, former secretary and organizer of the Industrial Workers of the World, speaks at the hall of the Young Peoples' Socialist League, 1432 W. Madison street, Sunday evening, Nov. 16. His subject will be "The Lawrence Strike." Having been actively connected with the management of the Lawrence strike, he is in a position to give his audience some very interesting and important information on the subject. Come down and hear him. A lively time is expected. Admission is free.

A Snow Ball Dance will be given at the league hall tonight.

SPLASH! ALSO CRASH!

London, Nov. 15.—A suffraget woman spectator threw a ripe tomato and a hammer at Justice Lawrence at the Old Bailey during the trial of Rachael Pearce, an "arsonette." The hammer shattered the glass surrounding the prisoner's dock. The tomato spattered several king's counsellors. Miss Pearce, charged with setting fire to The Elms, a country mansion at Hampton Court, was convicted and sentenced to 18 months imprisonment at hard labor.
